AGENCY OVERVIEW

The North Carolina Department of Adult Correction (NCDAC) was launched as a standalone Cabinet agency on January 1, 2023, under the leadership of Secretary Todd Ishee. NCDAC employees have the responsibility for the rehabilitation, care, custody and supervision of more than 30,000 individuals in prison and more than 75,000 people on probation, post-release, or parole in our communities.

NCDAC also manages Community Supervision Judicial District offices in all 100 North Carolina counties. NCDAC's operational divisions and sections include Institutions, Community Supervision, Comprehensive Health Services, Education Services, Rehabilitation and Reentry, Special Operations and Intelligence Unit, and Correction Enterprises.

Key support elements include Central Engineering, Workforce Management, the Office of Staff Development and Training, the Prison Rape Elimination Act Office, Facility Management, Internal Audit, and the employee behavioral health support program known as S.H.I.E.L.D. STRATEGIC PLANNING PROCESS

In the late summer of 2022, NCDAC leadership was surveyed regarding its perception of strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats facing what was then a division in transition to becoming the new agency.

Through this process, five overarching themes emerged as the draft framework of the strategic plan:

- Our People
- Our Missions
- Our Work Places
- Our Operations
- Transparency/Communication

Feedback on the framework was solicited through regional forums held in early 2023, with representation of a variety of staff and through a staff survey. This engagement with NCDAC staff helped to finalize the strategic framework.

Additionally, NCDAC partnered with the NC Office of State Budget and Management to identify priority questions that will guide future research initiatives in support of achieving its strategic goals.
